The Bulletin.

Norwich, Tuesday, June 13, 1916.

THE WEATHER The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be light variable; middle Atlantic coast light west.

Local showers and thunder storms have occurred in the Atlantic states. Temperatures continue below the seasonal average in nearly all districts east of the Rocky Mountains. The indications are that the weather will be generally fair Tuesday and Wednesday over the states east of the Mississippi river. A gradual rise in temperature is probable in the middle Atlantic and New England states. Forecast.

New England and Eastern New York: Fair Tuesday and Wednesday; slowly rising temperature.

Observations in Norwich. The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Monday:

The U. S. Finishing company will give their employes a holiday today owing to the circus.

There will be no school at the Greeneville grammar school today so as the children may see the circus.

1. We are here with a message. Jesus came with a message to men. His message was vital; it was a message of leve and life.

He brought a message of hope to a waiting, troubled, sinful world. He had a message for all the world.

So today it rests upon each Christian believer, as a disciple of Jesus, to proclaim his message.

The semi-unnual visit of the Ladies' Charitable society of St. Mary's parish to the almshouse on Thursday vill be postponed until some future date. The society makes the ville we are here then as message. will be postponed until some future data. The society makes this visit twice a year to help in making the inmates more comfortable.

We are here then as messengers of God, as representatives of the Christ. We are trustees of the message. What is this message?

The case of Susan A. Mitchell vs. Henry A. Bolles was on Monday with-drawn from the superior court dockst drawn from the superior court docket without costs.

This was an action for $5,000 as the result of an automobile accident on Nov. 5, 1914, when the plaintiff was run over by an automobile driven by the defendant, The action was brought by George W. Mitchell of Old Lyme in behalf of the girl, who at the time of the accident was about 8 years of age. She had just alighted from a trolley car and was walking across the Lyme turnpike when she was struck by the automobile, which came around a curve a short distance away. She was thrown to the ground and her injuries consisted of bruises and wounds about the limbs, head and body.

We are here to believe in God's unterested in the life of Jesus.

Mr. Kimball has been prominent in college circles at Brown, among other things having recently received the honor of election to the vice presidency of the Brown union, the big student social organization which occupies in Rockefeller hall. He was also one of the few sophomores recently initiated the Brown in the Brow tern of our lives.
